MARROW Escarz.—Yesterday, as Mr. F. Kilis and Mr. McGos were returning in a carriage from Bergen jall, where they had been to lodge a prisoner, the breeching gave way, and the horses taking fright dashed down the hill lorek. Ellis jumped just before the carriage meahed the creek, but McGee went in with the team, and was reverely injured in the face by a kick from our off the horses. A crowd gathered and succeeded in getting McGee and the team safely on shore.

Common Pleas.

Before Hon. Judge Daly.

ALLEGED SLANDER.

MAY 21.—Louis Kiernon, vs. Herman Krail.—This was action for slander, arising out of a quarrel between a parties, who keep German groggeries, &c., in Greensh street, and consisted in the defendant having called a plaintiff a thief. Evidence was given to prove the aracter of the respective parties, and from what apared on the trial we should say that the Five Points scienaries would find an ample field for their labors in a locality of Greenwich atreet.

The Judge told the jury that if they believed the plain f to be a man of bad character he could not maintain action for slander. The evidence of the two police icers clearly proved that at the back of his cellar, the was a rum store, he permitted prostitution to go officers clearly proved that at the which was a rum store, he permitted prostitution to go en. If the jury were of opinion that a person of that description is not exactly the one that should come into a court of justice to ask for damages for injured reputation they would find a verdict for the defeedant. The jury, without a moment's consultation, rendered a ver-

Enox, No. 128 Fulton Street.—Knox and beauty are synonymoust terms. A Knox hat is faseinating to the eye scothing to the head, and eavy to the postlet. He is the High Priest of tile makers, and his extensive premises are overflowing with the most beautiful medels of native and foreign bate and caps. Such is Knox's popularity that every gentleman with proper respect for appearances adorns himself with one of his admirable beavers.

Knox & James, No. 533 Broadway.—It is a philosophical fact that when we meet a mortal with a melancholy "phir" he it invariably surmounted by anisorable hat. This proves that castors exert a potent influence over craniums, consequently every gent that whene to be on good terms with himself and all the world should purchase one of Knox & James' exquisite & summer beavers.
